GERMAN ATTEMPT TO IMPOSE ARBITRARY SETTLEMENT WILL MEAN WAR

UNPROVOKED ASSAULT REPORTED TO BRITISH CONSUL-GENERAL

Shanghai, September 11. A Japanese sergeant-major, not on duty, threw lighted matches into the eyes of Mr. W. Iredale, a Briton, in East Broadway early yesterday morning, according to a report said by the North China Daily News to have been made by Mr. Iredale and four other witnesses to the Settlement Police and the British Consul-General.

The assault, which is said to be entirely unprovoked, occurred as Mr. Iredale and two other British employees of Jardine's, Messrs. T. C. Clarke and H. Jackson, were bound for the Shanghai Waterworks compound in Yangtsipoon under Settlement Police escort at 1.30 a.m.

Accompanied by foreign and Japanese police, the three civilians were riding through East Broadway to Yangtsipoon when the car was suddenly halted by a Japanese wearing army uniform standing on the roadway.

The Japanese shouted to the occupants of the car to get out and all complied with the request. As soon as they were on the roadway the three civilians were allegedly attacked by the Japanese Army man who reportedly beat them with drawn sword and fist and pushed them to one side of the road.

ACTIVITY ON MORAVIAN FRONTIER FOLLOWS MILITARY MANOEUVRES

Possibility Of Serious Incidents Between Czechs, Sudetens, Not Overlooked

Prague, September 11. If Germany takes the Sudeten question into her own hands and tries to impose an arbitrary settlement upon Czechoslovakia, it will mean war.

It is generally felt that the next 48 hours will decide whether Germany will adopt this attitude or whether negotiations between the Czech Government and the Sudeten German Party are to proceed in peace.

It is pointed out that Germany cannot use the pretext that the proposals of the Czech Government are inadequate. They have been accepted by the Sudeten leader, Herr Henlein, as the basis for negotiations and fulfil in principle the eight points of his Karlsbad speech.

The possibility of some serious incident between Sudeten Germans and Czechs, consequent upon the animosities fanned by weeks and months of constant propaganda by Reich newspapers and broadcasts, cannot be overlooked.

NO BRITISH DEMARCHÉ IN BERLIN

London, Sept. 11. The report of the British Ambassador, Sir Neville Henderson, on his conversations with Herr Joachim von Ribbentrop, German Foreign Minister, was received in London yesterday and was immediately placed before the British Cabinet Ministers who were deliberating in No. 10 Downing Street.

The report formed one of the central topics of the discussions but no indication as to its nature was disclosed.

The British Foreign Secretary (Lord Halifax), Sir Samuel Hoare (Home Secretary), Sir Robert Vansittart (Chief Diplomatic Adviser to the British Government) and Sir Alexander Cadogan (Permanent Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs) all left No. 10 Downing Street shortly after 7 p.m.

Herr Hitler Refers To Czechoslovakia

National Socialism Will Defend Power

Nuremberg, Sept. 11. A reference to Czechoslovakia was made by the German Chancellor, Herr Hitler, at a mass parade of storm troops.

"I see before me a Germany happy in unity," declared Hitler. "There are other Germans to whom this happiness is still denied. Our hearts fly out to them as we know their hearts are with us."

The Fuehrer also declared that National Socialism had got its power by fighting and was determined to defend that power in all circumstances. — (Reuter).

Sanctions Discussed

Geneva, September 11. Conversations were held yesterday between representatives of a number of Powers attending the League meeting here regarding the subject of application of certain Articles of the League Covenant, particularly Article 16.

The British attitude on this question, with which the smaller states are deeply concerned, will be clarified by Lord Halifax, Foreign Secretary, when he addresses the Assembly.

A discussion also took place yesterday between the British and Chinese delegations.

The latter made it clear that they had been instructed by their Government to demand the application against Japan of Article 17, which deals with the application of sanctions to non-member states. — (Reuter).

Japanese Are Defeated At Lutaiti But Launch Counter-Attack On Kwangtsi

Loyang, September 11. Military advices from the front admit that Kueih, an important town situated about 120 kilometres northwest of Linan in the south-eastern part of Honan, has been abandoned by the Chinese but state that Yehchiatsai, and Chietzai, southeast and north of Kueih, have been recaptured by them.

The two towns were taken from the Japanese in simultaneous counter-attacks yesterday morning. The Japanese were dispersed after severe fighting.

Extremely heavy fighting is going on at Fuchinshan on the west bank of the Shih River on the Anhwei-Honan border. Heavy casualties are said to have been inflicted on the Japanese during an engagement there on September 9. The no man's land separating the Chinese and Japanese forces is strewn with corpses of Japanese troops killed in action.

Meanwhile, the Chinese are reaching Hwaiyang, a town about 50 kilometres from the Anhwei-Honan border.

INFILTRATION OF BANDITS

Tientsin Takes Precautions

Tientsin, Sept. 11. Apparently owing to fear of infiltration of bandits, who were recently most active in the villages near Tientsin, the authorities yesterday evening enforced precautions.

Pedestrians and others entering and leaving Chinese and Japanese areas are being searched for arms. Occupants of motor cars and carefully scrutinised and trams stopped on the border of these areas.

The precautions were relaxed this morning. — (Reuter).

KOWLOON POST OFFICE

It's "Face Lifted"

The Kowloon Post Office has been having its face lifted, so to speak.

New paint work has been going on both outside and inside the building.

The interior of the building has been shifted about giving much more space to the stamp and parcel service, a new long counter having been added to facilitate quicker and more efficient service to the public.

The private office of Mr. D. A. Hynes, who is in charge of the Kowloon Post Office has been moved to the west end of the building and opens off from the main postal room. The old office has had the partitions removed and the space devoted to the central postal room.

You will note when entering this post office for business that the new arrangement is far more convenient and the service quicker, due to the enlarged area and the addition of two extra postal clerks.

KEPT SILK FOR HIMSELF

A fine lot of $50, in default one month's imprisonment with hard labour was imposed by Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court on Saturday on Wong Hon-mui embroidery worker convicted on a charge of larceny by bailer of 75½ yards of pongee silk cloth.

Lau Hon-kwong, a partner in the Kan Wah firm in Pei Ho Street, had on August 18 brought this silk cloth to defendant to have made into underwear.

When Lau next went to see defendant about his silk cloth, defendant had changed address.

Later Lau met defendant. Together they went to the police station.

A search of Wong's lodgings resulted in the recovery of $40 worth of the silk.

Wong was ordered to pay $50 amends or to serve another month's imprisonment with hard labour.

A Marathon Winner

BUT NOW MAYBE BEEF-STEAK!

If a man ran from Kennedy Town all the way to Queen's Theatre, the hordes of "bystanders," common to Hong-Kong streets, might have evinced just a little interest, especially in the last lap along Queen's Road Central.

But on Saturday a bull—a real live bull—was the central figure of the 1938 Marathon championship of Hong Kong.

Taking a Praya course up to the Harbour Office swinging sharply right into Des Voeux Road Central, the bull roared and snorted its way through narrow little streets into Queen's Road Central. Pandemonium reigned. The crowd was one of the biggest that ever turned out for a sporting event in the Colony.

It is rather wrong to surmise that the bull was interested in seeing Loretta Young in "Four Men and a Prayer" or Ginger Rogers in "Having a Wonderful Time." That bull just didn't want to go to the slaughter house.

Eventually it was led back there. But it had run a real marathon run, cheered by a large and enthusiastic crowd! The walk back was comparatively slow. And this bull may be your beef-steak tomorrow, mister!

OPIUM RAIDS IN WOOSUNG STREET

Many Smokers Found

The evening of September 2, Revenue Officer E. T. Warden brought his raiding party to Woosung Street.

In quick succession numbers 17, 19, 31, and 35-Woosung Street were raided. The ground floor of every one of these addresses was occupied by a heroin or opium den.

Before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court on Saturday, Wan Ling, Fung Chak-hing, Li Yee-wo, and Yung Fook were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment.

Twenty-eight smokers were, at the time of the raids, patronising these Woosung Street dens.

Friday night Revenue Officer Warden was back at Woosung Street. Three more visits, at numbers 78, 137, and 141, uncovered three more drug dens.

Whole Business Of Savours Blackmail

Official Receiver Criticises Local Moneylenders

"The whole business savours of blackmail," remarked Mr. L. E. Andrews Official Receiver, in the course of a sharp criticism against methods of Indian money-lenders operating in the Colony, when he applied before the Acting Chief Justice, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell at the Supreme Court on Saturday, to re-open certain money-lending transactions in order to obtain from the moneylenders particulars of the transactions they had had with Archibald Robert Hynes, bankrupt, formerly trading as the Victoria Printing Press.

The Official Receiver said:—My Lord, I am the trustee in this bankruptcy and this is my application. It is brought under Sec. 2 (1) and (3) of the Money-lenders Ordinance No. 16 of 1911; and reference may also be made to Sections 97 and 110 of the Bankruptcy Ordinance, No. 10 of 1931.

Before reading my application and report I would explain that the position briefly, is that before the debtor's adjudication in 1938 certain Indian money-lenders had obtained in this Court a number of consent judgments against him amounting to over $20,000. After the debtor's adjudication these money-lenders filed in my office a number of claims against the debtor's estate in bankruptcy. Their claims are based upon the above-mentioned judgments.

Recently, two of these money-lender claimants, Kartar Singh and Man Singh, asked me to press the debtor to pay more money into his bankruptcy account so that I should be able to distribute it to them as dividends. The debtor's answer is:—

DEBTOR'S ANSWER

That although he consented to the judgments nevertheless it is unfair that he should be asked to pay any more money for the benefit of the money-lenders. He says that the judgments really arose out of an original loan of $6,000 made in 1931 to the late Mr. A. E. Hall, Solicitor of Hong Kong, by three money-lenders, upon the security of a number of promissory notes totalling $12,000 bearing interest at two per cent per month. The debtor was one of Hall's guarantors. The debtor says that although the rate of interest written in the notes was two per cent per month, in fact the rates verbally agreed upon at the time of the loan were much higher. It was because the money-lenders wished to conceal the high rates of interest that they required the parties to sign for $12,000 at two per cent per month instead of for $6,000 at the actual rates of interest. The debtor says that this practice among money-lenders and borrowers is common knowledge.

DEFAULTED IN PAYMENTS

In 1932 Hall defaulted in his interest payments. The money-lenders then asked the debtor to pay the interest. They demanded the high rates verbally agreed upon in 1931. In default of payment they threatened to sue the debtor for $12,000 plus interest thereon at two per cent per month. In these circumstances the debtor agreed to pay the high rates of interest. But he says that these rates were so high that his payments fell into arrears. As a result the original money-lenders introduced more money-lenders into the transaction. The debtor says that altogether he paid more than $13,000 to the various money-lenders in the form of interest. His case is that the verbal agreement of 1931, was too harsh—that the money-lenders were well aware that it was too harsh and that they concealed its harshness by promissory notes which bore an innocent appearance but which were in fact even more harsh.

EXORBITANT RATES

The debtor says that in fairness, the money-lenders ought to have appropriated his $13,000 partly to repayment of principal and partly to payment of interest whereas in fact they appropriated it wholly to payment of interest at exorbitant rates. The result was that he became more and more deeply entangled. He was the owner of a prosperous business, which the money-lenders ruined by infesting the premises. Finally in order to get rid of them and to avoid the publicity of contesting their claims he consented to the judgments. He says that the publicity of being entangled in legal proceedings with money-lenders would have ruined his business. He produces a report from his former auditors Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming which confirms that his business was a valuable one.

COURT'S RIGHTS

In the circumstances it is my duty as trustee in this bankruptcy to place the facts before the Court and to ask the Court to consider the question of what if anything does the debtor now owe the various money-lenders.

The appropriate form of procedure is under Section 2 of the Money-lenders Ordinance 1911.

The fact that the debtor consented to the judgments does not prevent the Court from now insisting upon the truth.

In Ex p. Lennox 16 Q. B. D. 315, Lord Esher at D. 323 said "Although by consenting to a judgment the debtor is estopped everywhere else from saying that there is no debt due—although the judgment is binding on him by reason of his consent, and of its being the judgment of the Court—yet no such estoppel is effectual as against the Court of Bankruptcy. The Court is not estopped by the conduct of the parties, but it has a right to inquire into the debt."

TO RE-OPEN TRANSACTION

In my application I ask the Court:—

1. To reopen the transaction.
2. To order the money-lenders to furnish as a first step a number of particulars which will go to the root of the matter and enable the Court to see at a glance on which side are the probabilities of truth.
3. To make such consequential and other orders as may be just.

Perhaps it would be as well if I mention here that the debtor's case is not an isolated one. In the last few months I have interviewed a number of bankrupts who attribute their bankruptcy solely to the harshness of money-lenders. Rather than risk loss of their employment by the publicity of contesting money-lender's claims they have blindly consented to judgments for sums of money which they have informed me months afterwards they do not really owe at all.

The whole business savours of blackmail.

If instead of consenting to judgment borrowers would in future ask the judge before whom the claim is heard, to order the money-lenders to furnish particulars of their claims, such as I am now applying for in this case, they would reap the following advantages.

- (1) No judgment would be given until the money-lenders had disclosed in writing to the judge and to the borrowers the whole truth of the transaction.
- (2) An order for particulars being a mere matter of procedure entails no publicity whatever.
- (3) In many cases there will be no necessity at all for borrowers to become bankrupt.

NEFARIOUS BUSINESS

The Registry records show that for many years past, anything from 500 to 1,000 persons per year consent to judgment in favour of Indian money-lenders. The records of the Supreme Court Accounts Office show that this annual crop of new judgment debtors pay into Court by small instalments a total amount of anything from $30,000 to $50,000, per year all of which is paid out to the money-lenders. In one instance (S. J. Action No. 857/1924) a consent judgment debtor has been paying small instalments into Court for over 14 years for the benefit of a money-lender. This huge volume of detailed and nefarious business, occupies the time of several members of the clerical staff of the Court.

The records of the Bankruptcy Department show that for many years, approximately 75 per cent of the persons who have been adjudicated bankrupt in this Court are judgment debtors who became overburdened with consent judgments in favour of Indian money-lenders.

MUST GIVE PARTICULARS

It is respectfully submitted that the evils arising out of money-lenders' transactions can be overcome immediately by the simple and effective remedy of ordering money-lenders to furnish full particulars of their claims. In the event of a money-lender failing to comply adequately in the first instance with such an order, any number of additional orders can be made against him for further and better particulars until eventually he tires of them and decides to disgorge the whole truth of the matter or is committed to prison for contempt of Court for disobeying the orders. This process of getting at the truth entails no publicity whatever; and if at any time the alleged borrower desires to question any allegation by the money-lender, he has a perfect right to do so without any publicity at all. The alleged borrower may of course, if he so desires, contest in open Court any and every allegation of the money-lender.

Finally it is respectfully submitted that there is no reason at all why judgments in money-lenders' Actions should be for more than the exact amount if any, owed by the borrower at the date of the judgment.

AFFIDAVIT READ

"After Mr. Roberts' affidavit had been read by the Official Receiver, Mr. Andrews applied to the Chief Justice that the money-lenders concerned furnish the particulars within a week's time.

Chief Justice:—"I think that's rather too short a time." Addressing the money-lenders—"How long do you want?" After a discussion it was agreed that within three weeks, the money-lenders concerned should furnish particulars of their dealings.

DEBTORS ALLEGATIONS

Addressing the creditors, the Chief Justice said:—"The debtor alleges that he took part in certain borrowings to pay off certain interests on sums borrowed. He further alleges that he has paid back something like $13,000. The Official Receiver therefore asks that each of you to furnish particulars of each one of these transactions. If you fail to get such details to satisfy the court, the debtor's case is not true and your proofs of your record shall be expunged."

Easy Way

Nothing can be more distracting to a woman than ugly pimples, burning irritations or patches of blackheads or enlarged pores on the face or neck. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them; whilst others cause the skin to become muddy-looking, coarse and blemished by using the wrong treatment.

To make your skin clear and healthy, to cleanse clogged facial pores, remove blackheads and pimples and to make your complexion clearer and smoother, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-deep dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects.

To rid the skin of pimples, skin-outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

MAANSHAN AGAIN FALLS INTO JAPANESE HANDS

Tunki, Anhwei, September 11. Maanshan near Tikang on the south bank of the Yangtze River which recently recaptured by the Chinese after repulsing the Japanese troops landing there again fell into Japanese hands on Friday morning.

After severe bombardment by more than ten Japanese warships in the Yangtze River, Japanese infantry units rushed the Chinese positions. A squad of Chinese troops guarding the point engaged in hand-to-hand fighting with them. Outnumbered by the Japanese, the Chinese fought to the last man.

Chinese reinforcements have been rushed up and an attempt is being made to regain the place. (Central News).

MYSTERY OF THE SEAS

With the arrival of the Messageries Maritimes steamer, Paul Doumer, in Hong Kong on Saturday the mystery of the blazing ship off the Paracels deepens.

First intimation of a ship on fire off the Paracels came with what was considered possibly an erroneous despatch concerning the "Claud Chappe".

A member of the crew of the "Paul Doumer" claims to have sighted a blazing ship at sea, off the Paracels, as the "Paul Doumer" was steaming in the vicinity at eight o'clock on Thursday morning.

Local Agents of the Messageries Maritimes can give this story no official confirmation.

The Harbour Master also remains silent on the question.

MUSICAL REVIEW OF THE WEEK

BY ALLEGRO MODERATO

It will not be long before we will be hearing Gilbert and Sullivan's "Ruddigore" on the Hong Kong stage. The Philharmonic Society has started rehearsals. Lindsay Lafford has relinquished his position as honorary conductor, which is a pity, but in his place the committee could not have chosen a better successor than Bandmaster H. B. Jordan of the Royal Scots. We wish the Society the success it deserves in this very difficult undertaking.

After a respite of a few months, the Chorus Group "took the air" again last night. It seems that they have decreased in numbers, but that has not detracted from their fine singing. In fact, the voices blend far better than they did before.

The programme chosen suited their style and the training they have received from their conductor, Maestro Gumbel. The polyphonic style was introduced to Hong Kong by this Group four years ago. Polyphony, in the real sense of the word, mean many voices. For some of Palestine's works many voices have to be used to produce the desired effect. The form consists of several tone series, progressing simultaneously according to the rules of counterpoint, each voice having a separate melody.

What a difference.—Tin Pan Alley then and now! The days when tune merchants had to turn out their wistful ballads from dire necessity.... last week's rent on tomorrow's breakfast; the days when a tune became the rage immediately it was accepted and kept all the pianos all over the world thumping them out, selling as much as five million copies, to say nothing of gramophone records—those days are over!

Only a few of the old stalwarts remain, such as Irving Berlin, Harry Von Tilzer and E. B. Marks. The publishers considered themselves lucky if they picked or chanced upon one hit out of fifty songs. As soon as a song was accepted it was tried in burlesque shows and then in vaudeville until it died an early death or became a success.

Today things are different. The new Mecca of the song writer or writers (they go in pairs nowadays) is Hollywood. There for a film musicals as many as six songs must be written. Big salaries are paid.

Most of the publishers are today subsidiaries of the film studios as eighty percent of the songs written now are for pictures. The leading song writers are in Hollywood, under contract or freelancing.

SPECIAL ADVISERS APPOINTED

Tokyo, Sept. 10.
The Cabinet has decided to appoint "advisers" to the Foreign Office, the number of whom will not exceed three and whose duty it will be to participate in all important diplomatic negotiations. It is believed in political circles that among the first advisers to be appointed will be two former Foreign Ministers Messrs. Sato and Hachiro Arita.—(Transocean).

NATIONAL CONSCIOUSNESS

Since the outbreak of hostilities, the national consciousness of the whole Chinese nation has developed as never before.

As was reported by the Ta Kung Pao from Kweichow, the students are receiving military training.

This is brought about by the present crisis, as the people not only in Kweichow, but over the whole country realise the importance of military training and the responsibility of defending the country.

This strong national consciousness, widely spread in the mind of the whole nation, shows the greatness of China's mass power.

VOLUNTEERS IN SPAIN

Soviet Government In Disagreement With Non-Intervention
Committee's Plan

London, Sept. 9.

The Spanish question is at present under consideration of the Non-Intervention Committee.

It is understood that the Soviet Ambassador, M. Maisky, has informed the Chairman, Lord Plymouth, that the Soviet Government does not agree to the Secretary of the Non-Intervention Committee going to Spain to interview the leaders of the two sides regarding the withdrawal of foreign volunteers, but that representatives of the Republicans and Nationalists should come to London.

M. Maisky declared that Russia will not agree to any more concessions made to General Franco. — (Reuter Bulletin).

BRITISH NOTE TO GERMANY

Cabinet's Attitude
Made Clearer

London, Sept. 10.

The Daily Mail and Daily Express splash statements in their issues this morning of their diplomatic correspondents that the British Government last night decided to send to the German Government a Note making more precise the British Cabinet's attitude towards aggression.

The diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Express says that the step was decided by the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, in consultation with the Foreign Secretary (Lord Halifax) and the Chancellor of the Exchequer (Sir John Simon), after receiving the British Ambassador, Sir Neville Henderson's report of his interview with the German Foreign Minister, Herr Joachim von Ribbentrop, the result of which the Ministers regarded as unsatisfactory. — (Reuter).

NERVOUSNESS IN LONDON

London, Sept. 10.

Nervousness concerning the European crisis was increased here this afternoon by reports of a concentration of German troops at the frontier of Austria and Czechoslovakia.

Under the heading "Hitler Massing His Troops" the Evening Standard affirms that 200,000 men have been assembled at the

DR. BENES BROADCASTS FROM PRAGUE

Appeal For Endorsement
Of "Last Proposals"

Prague, September 11.

The State President of Czechoslovakia, Dr. Edvard Benes, at 4 p.m. on Saturday, made his eagerly-awaited broadcast address in the course of which he recommended members of the Republic to endorse the "last proposals" submitted by the Government for the solution of the nationalistic question in Czechoslovakia.

Contrary to expectations, Dr. Benes did not deal with the eight points, formulated by Karlsbad Henlein and setting out the demands of the Sudeten-Germans, one by one.

Speaking of the situation as a whole Dr. Benes said that he was strongly optimistic and added that his optimism today was greater than ever. He went on to say that he was speaking at a time "full of international difficulties, the greatest that have arisen since the war. I speak in this critical moment about ourselves and about our position in the midst of an excited world, and I speak to all Czechs and Slovaks, to the Germans and to all the other nationalities.

"I speak to them as fellow-beings who desire peace and quiet and who esteem in others human dignity and goodwill.

"Our Republic has been developed during the last twenty years in a spirit of peace, promoting political democracy and freedom, economic and cultural advancement, religious toleration and social justice. But we had, and still have a problem—that of nationalities.

"This question, like the others, we tried to settle in our own way.

FASTER DEVELOPMENT

"I must admit, however, that today, the rapid succession of European and world events make faster development imperative. We can change the rate of the movement but not the spirit in which this State tends to settle its great current question, namely the spirit of true, sincere democracy.

"The questions which are at issue and the principles according to which it is necessary to proceed towards a solution have been published. Considerable part of this material is contained in the Nationalities Statute. The Government motion, however, has not been given the form of law but of agreement on the principles of the new settlement.

The motion contains several parts that were not in the original plan but these have been worked out so as to give the State what belongs to the State and to the nationalities what is their due.

SURE OF FUTURE

I know that our State will emerge victorious from our present difficulties. Let us not forget that faith and goodwill can remove mountains and that they will help us happily out of all European confusion of today." — (Transocean).

REINFORCEMENTS FOR THE JAPANESE

Tientsin, Sept. 10.

Japanese reinforcements have been pouring into Tangku for three days in succession and foreign observers estimate that the total number landed must be several divisions, which immediately entrained for Tientsin, according to a report yesterday.

Although official circles declare that further Japanese troops have been despatched in order to suppress Chinese irregulars in North China who are successfully destroying stretches of the Peking Hankow Railway Line which is so important to the despatch of troops, foreign circles here fear that the Japanese authorities may be considering "a radical solution" to the problem of British and French settlements in Tientsin.

All Japanese who were living in these settlements left some time ago at the order of the Japanese authorities as "these areas have become breeding grounds of anti-Japanese activities in consequence of the unfriendly attitude of the Powers to Japan." — (Transocean).

"weakest spot" of the Czechoslovak frontier, along a distance of about fifty miles. According to the paper, diplomatic quarters regard this concentration of troops as a means for adding weight to Germany's contentions. Similar reports are published in the Evening News. — (Transocean).

EVENTS IN PRAGUE NOT SO IMPORTANT

"Times" Says Attention Is On Nuremberg

London, Sept. 10.

Resumption of negotiations between the Sudeten-German Party and the Prague Government was prominently featured by the papers here this morning in reports on developments in the Czech crisis.

In connection with these reports the papers publish lengthy excerpts from Chancellor Hitler's address before party officials at the Nuremberg party congress.

The Fuehrer's declaration that Germany was determined not to capitulate to anybody and that those making the mistake of counting on Germany's weakness, is particularly stressed.

DOWNING STREET TALKS

"The Times" declares that events in Prague are far less important at the present moment, than the developments that come from Nuremberg.

The papers, in the meantime, publish lengthy speculations regarding negotiations which took place in Downing Street on Friday and which will probably be continued during the week-end.

As for as is known, neither the Premier, Mr. Chamberlain, nor the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, will risk a prolonged absence from London for the time being.

opportunity to inform Chancellor Hitler, informally, of the British attitude.

It appears, says The Times, that Germany has hitherto not been completely convinced that England would not be disinterested in the fate of Czechoslovakia if an attempt was made to solve the nationalities problem by force.

The Times, however, declares that Sir Neville Henderson has not yet been instructed to seek an interview with the Fuehrer unless the Fuehrer himself should express a wish to see the Ambassador.

NO ACTION YET

Although no important British steps are to be expected during the week-end, since the British Government believes that the initiative does not rest with London at present, there can be no doubt that Friday's negotiations were devoted to certain preparations.

It is probable that the measures announced by the Admiralty shortly before Friday mid-night, were likewise decided upon in the course of Friday's deliberations since it was expressly announced that the measures were taken, "in view of developments in the European situation."

While reporting in detail all the developments in the situation, the papers, generally speaking, show considerable reserve in their editorial comments. — (Transocean).

Prince Mahmud's Romance With English Girl

PRINCE MAHMUD, 20 years of age and brother to the ruling Sultan of Trengganu was surprised to find last week that the bar was potent even in England.

The Prince has lived in England since the age of ten. His outlook is British and he had little thought of Colonial customs. Living on an allowance of £6 a week he managed to get along quite comfortably under the care of an English tutor.

A strong friendship developed with Misson chiroprast Joyce Blencowe, 20-year-old daughter of an Oxford tailor, and no objection was taken. However, as soon as the Prince put a platinum and diamond ring upon this young lady's finger and announced his engagement, wires between London and Trengganu commenced to hum.

Commanded to return to Malaya by his brother, he suddenly reconsidered the trip, disembarked at Marseilles after a telephone call to his fiancée had informed him that he might be arrested or restrained when he reached his native home.

The wedding opposed by the Sultan, the Colonial Office and Miss Blencowe's father, the Prince sought refuge with a restaurant keeper friend. "Nothing will prevent me taking an English bride back with me," he declared. "I know Joyce's parents like me for what I am."

The fortune which the Prince inherits he cannot touch until he comes of age next May. Therefore, the Prince announced he would work as a waiter or chauffeur. Later he decided to write a letter to his brother, explaining his reasons for wishing to marry and making it clear that he has acquired English habits and cannot be satisfied with a Malayan bride.

FASHION NOTES

It Will Be Veils This Winter

Veils, very much the vogue for day and evening the coming season. The public were half-educated to them last spring but they are now going to go over 100 per cent strong this winter.

Velvet head dresses are fantastic, dainty little swathes of chiffon wound round the head like turbans, and twisted with net or veiling, secured with jewelled clips, are sending the ladies of Europe raving mad. They are a relief from the floral topknots so popular this summer and they keep the hair tidy.

At the dance and in the theatre veils of varying lengths, from very long ones almost like the bridal versions to quite short ones, are being worn.

Hats have veils and small ones are trimmed with coloured veiling, there has been a "swing-back" to the Edwardian style of tying the veil under the chin, or draping the face rather like a local remedy for toothache!

But for heaven's sake don't forget to own a veil for the coming winter and they can do plenty for you.

HAIR PROBLEM

And now for the hair problem. True, your hairdresser can do a great deal to restore the natural lustre and oil that old man sun has burst from your crowning glory. But you can receive extra dividends in lovely hair if you help her out.

Brush, brush and more brushing. Each time you are in your room during the day, and the hands are not occupied, take up the hair brush and commence to stroke. Brushing never ruined a good permanent yet, and too, it keeps hair clean besides causing the oil ducts to set about working and, oh! the shine.

Oil shampoos and massage are very good for the hair in giving it life after the salt water and summer weather have just about been its funeral.

All of this beauty work is WORK, but your skin needs this care and will thank you by giving you a new complexion and glowing creamy appearance to compliment your new winter wardrobe. In fact, you will be very lovely to look at and very lovely to see, so it is all worth the time and energy. We are all vain!

Beauty Rules That Every Sportsgirl Should Remember

Every active sportswoman should remember—

To dry her hair as quickly as possible after each swim. If she does her swimming in salt water, she ought to rub tonic into her scalp while hair is still wet, then, when it is dry, use a hairbrush energetically. Tonic and brushing will remove every trace of salt and keep the hair shiny and bright.

That rather abbreviated, skirtless swim suits and shorts are for the slim-hipped and slender legged only.

To wear a lightweight panty-girdle when golfing or riding. That if she plays golf and rides regularly and drives a car a good deal but never bothers to wear gloves, she'll have callouses on her hands.

The black is a colour which doesn't look well with suntanned skin.

The importance of looking as clean and perfectly groomed when playing her favourite game as she does in street clothes. The fact that one is really good at a sport is no excuse for having hair which obviously ought to be shampooed, dirty finger-nails covered with chipped polish, a grimy neck or a slightly soiled, unpressed costume.

That, regardless of the informality of the slacks or dresses she wears about the vacation cottage or farm, it isn't a good idea to shuffle around in broken down shoes with run-over heels and shattered arches. In sports shoes, just as in any other type of shoes, comfortable isn't synonymous with "practically worn out." And the shoe which offers no support at all is as bad for one's foot as a too-tight shoe.

The importance of anti-perspirants and deodorants. (It's a good idea for any active woman to use an anti-perspirant two or three times a week during summer months).

The utter joy of a culture which can be re-arranged easily after a swim or a tennis match.

Wed Over Airport

Romantic history was made recently when Malaya's air-minded Chinese couple, Miss Lee Siew Ngoh and Mr. Yan Sou-kong, were married in the "Governor Murchison" flying high over Singapore.

The bridal party in the "Governor Murchison" included:—

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thiam Shin;

The bridesmaid, Miss Lee Siew Foong;

The train-bearer;

The best-man, Mr. Chew Chong Lin;

The bride's uncle, Mr. Lye Khai Joo, and

The Chinese vice-consul, Mr. C. T. Kwong, who officiated at the ceremony.

The marriage ceremony was of a simple nature being carried out in the Chinese reformed style.

An interesting feature of the ceremony was the exchange of rings after the contracting parties had signed the marriage certificate.

Newsettes

An enjoyable afternoon was spent by a large gathering of past and present students of the Diocesan Girls' School on Saturday when an "At Home" was held in the school hall.

Games and competitions of various kinds were held during the afternoon.

Mr. T. Black of the Treasury was removed to the Queen Mary Hospital on Saturday, suffering from dysentery.

The many friends of Mr. A. N. Spencer will be sorry to hear of the death in America, of his mother. Mr. Spencer was formerly of the British-American Tobacco Company.

Green Eye - Lashes For Hazel Eyes

CHALK-WHITE varnished nails, single curl of hair bleached silver, green-painted eye-lashes and dark-brown lips are a few of the very latest beauty fashions adopted by famous stage and film stars and other smart women.

Frances Day (right) and Evelyn Laye (left) are painting their nails white. This tends to make the fingers look longer and more graceful. "Some people laugh at what they call freak fashions," said a West End beauty specialist, "but for certain types of beauty, these fashions do not look absurd."

"Green eye-lashes look lovely at night for women with hazel eyes. It gives them a gleam."

"Another idea is to tint the hair softly to match an evening dress."

"The dye is a special kind which can be brushed out next day with a dry shampoo."

FOOTWEAR FASHIONS MAKE A FORECAST

The lightness of your shoes shows their newness. The days of heavy shoes—even for sports—have gone by. For town there are "feather-weight" shoes weighing exactly ten ounces. Why be leaden-footed when, at that weight, you can be shod in calf and suede, laced up the front right to the top of the instep?

Such a shoe has a seamless front and is like a glove on the foot. For sports, when you have to stand about in wet grass, the new shoe has either a cork sole (for lightness and airiness) covered with rubber, or—for shooting, say, or golf—has a leather sole covered with rubber for half an inch up to keep out water.

Wedge or platform soles have won themselves a place in many women's affections. So far, the difficulty has been that the sole does not bend and so tends to a flat-footed walk. The new shoes, with wedge heel effects, have pliable soles, notwithstanding their built-up heels.

The actual calfskin, brown flecked with white, is a fashion of the year, but not for general use, as the unshorn skin is difficult to obtain. It is built for instance, with a tab tongue over an elastic inset on the instep, and with layered leather heels.

The newest dance shoes are openwork lace made of spun glass, in white and in colours.

Another lace shoe is a black silk crochet lace met with a peep-toe. A third fashion is for flower heading on satin shoes, all built high up the instep even though open at the toes and heels.

TO KEEP CARNATIONS FRESH

CARNATIONS are still wonderfully plentiful. It is, in fact, the peak of the season, and they are now more abundant than any other summer flower.

If looked after properly they will remain fresh in water for days. The points to remember in order to get the full benefit from these flowers are to clean—but the vases with hot water before refilling, to ensure that there is a good depth of water, so that the stems are well immersed; to see that the vase is not in a position where the flowers are likely to be in a draught.

Although carnations like fresh air, they will wilt in a draught.

GUERRILLA SUCCESSSES

LIAONING REACHED

Hankow, Sept. 10.

Intensifying and extending their activities north of the Great Wall, Chinese guerrillas have penetrated from Jehol to Liaoning in Manchukuo. Railway communications between Kupeikow and Tungshien are cut by the guerrillas, and over 300 Japanese troops in these two towns were slain by the Chinese raiders.

In Chengteh, Jehol province and Chingchow, Liaoning province, the guerrillas made lightning attacks on the Japanese forces and inflicted over 200 casualties. In Lianhsien, over 30 Japanese were killed and Ningho county was captured on September 1.

Over forty Japanese officers and men of the Nagata detachment stationed at Machiating, 20 miles east of Peiping, were killed by a sudden attack of the guerrillas on September 8.—(International News Agency).

JAPANESE HELD

Thrust In South Shansi Fails

Tungkwang, Sept. 10.

The Japanese thrust in south Shansi failed when Chinese troops reinforced by guerrillas today forced them to retreat northward. It is reported that Fenglingtu, on the north bank of the Yellow River, is cleared of Japanese troops, although at one time it seemed that they were bent on crossing the river to attack Hankow from the north west.

In North Shansi, Chinese guerrillas have resumed attacks on Japanese outposts, and the enemy at Taiyuan, Tayu, Huoshien, Chihshien and along the Tatung-Puchow Railway are repeatedly harassed by the irregulars.

In west Shansi, Lishih and Nankow were again retaken by the Chinese forces.

The retreat of Japanese units in Shansi is regarded as an indication that the advance on Wuhan will be undertaken largely along the Yangtze from the east.—(International News Agency).

JAPANESE SABOTAGE: BRITISH INVESTMENTS MENACED

HONG KONG, SEPTEMBER 11th, 1938

ALTHOUGH no information is available, it is believed, that matters of great economic and financial importance have been discussed between the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs and the British Ambassador to Japan.

One of the most important matters for discussion is that of British investments in China, estimated to be over £300,000,000. Other problems include that of shipping in Chinese waters and matters pertaining to British Loans for Chinese railways. Requests were made for the return of the railways involved in the control of foreign staffs. Nearly £3,500,000 is outstanding alone on the Nanking-Shanghai railway. This loan was secured on the Revenues, permanent way, rolling stock and machinery, and as regular traffic has been opened by the Japanese on this line, revenue is being collected by them, but no statement of accounts has been submitted and the foreign staff has been refused permission to visit this railway. A similar situation is reported on the Shanghai-Hangchow-Ningpo Railway, on which a loan of over a million pounds is secured. Detailed reference to British interests in the major railways of China, many of which are badly affected by the undeclared war, was made by Mr. D. G. M. Bernard at the last general meeting of the British and Chinese Corporation Limited in London.

To show the attitude of the Japanese in this matter, it has been reported that the stations along the Shanghai-Hangchow and the Shanghai-Nanking Railways, are being renamed with Japanese pronunciation of names in place of Chinese, and that signs and notices in English are being replaced by Japanese signs.

No solution so far has been reached regarding the action of the Japanese military authorities in closing Chinese inland waters to British shipping. In fact early last month the Japanese announced the organisation of an inland shipping service and with the assistance of the Japanese Government and army has obtained the monopoly of navigation in the Shanghai hinterland. This shipping service, known as the Kiangsu-Chekiang Steamship Company, has a capital of two million yen.

As strict restrictions are placed by the Japanese authorities on shipping in general in an attempt to drive foreign shipping out of business in China, it is reported that consideration is being given by the British Government to the closure of all British ports to Japanese shipping, unless China Coast and inland waterways are opened to British shipping.

Support to this measure is expected from other nations which have been shut out by the "closing door" policy which is being pursued by the Japanese wherever possible. This measure of retaliation is reported to have found favour among British shipping firms in Shanghai, who believe that retaliation is the most effective means of reform in international politics.

In North China, the door of trade was virtually closed when the Japanese authorities introduced the "licensing system" for imports and exports. Authoritative statistics collected by foreign trade experts indicate that in these this year, 80 per cent of the import trade was done by the Japanese and 70 per cent of the export trade. These figures included only recorded trade. When smuggled goods and other products which filtered through, are included, the amount must be considerably higher.

MEDICAL UNIT FROM INDIA DUE THIS WEEK

of the hostilities. The unit is so efficiently equipped in every aspect as to last at least one full year.

The five volunteer workers are highly qualified surgeons and have been carefully selected out of the hundreds of applicants who had offered their services to the call of the Congress. The leader of the unit, Dr. Atal, is eminently fitted for the job. He has wide experience in work of this nature, having served on the Spanish war fronts.

These five medical officers are by no means the only surgeons who are being sent to China. A further number of experienced men and dressers will also be sent by the Congress which is waiting for word from the unit regarding the conditions and needs in China. Meanwhile a programme has been drawn up to entertain the delegates.

PASCH WILL RUN AT NEWMARKET

London, Sept. 10.
Mrs. H. E. Morris announced today that she has decided to reverse her previous decision not to run Pasch, winner of the 1,000 Guineas and third in both the Derby and St. Leger, in the Champion Stakes at Newmarket on October 27.—(Reuter).

Following Pasch's failure to win the St. Leger, for which it was favourite, Mrs. Morris, in a statement to Reuter's racing correspondent, stated that Pasch had run its last race and would henceforth embark on its stud career.

secured the shortage of skilled attention, surgical supplies, and operating facilities will continue, and it is in this direction that the sympathetic efforts of foreign countries can be valuably directed.

CHURCH BODIES AIDING CHINA CAUSE

Raising Loan Of
$100,000,000

Chungking, Sept. 9.
Sympathetic with the China cause, religious bodies in the west are reported to be raising a loan of $100,000,000 as a means to support the National Government. Most activities are centred around the United States.

In appreciation of this assistance, the National Government will promote Christian activity in China. Permission will be granted to religious organizations to participate in the execution of the educational programme in China, provided it does not run counter to Kuomintang principles.

The Government will give special consideration to the building of universities and hospitals, maintained by foreign religious organizations.

Confirmation of this report is still lacking, but it is admitted that many religious societies abroad are horrified by the war and are willing to help China in every way.—(International)

CHARGES AGAINST HINES UPHELD

New York, Sept. 10.
A defence motion for the dismissal of the charges of conspiracy, bribery and illegal gambling against James J. Hines, former Tammany Hall leader, was dismissed today by Judge Pecora, who upheld the validity of all the charges.

The Judge ruled that the conspiracy charge, which was the one attacked by Hines' counsel, could be heard separately from the others.—(Reuter).

ABYSSINIA AND LEAGUE

London, Sept. 10.
The Emperor of Abyssinia has notified the League of Nations that he does not intend to send representatives to Geneva for the present meeting as no question has been put down on the agenda regarding Abyssinia for discussion. Abyssinia reserves the right, however, of sending delegates in future meetings when Abyssinian questions are affected.—(Reuter).

LAWLESSNESS VERSUS FAIRPLAY

Washington, Sept. 11.

Lawlessness versus fairplay is the issue confronting the whole world, declares Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, in a letter accepting an invitation to the United States to attend the eighth Pan-American Conference.

Mr. Hull continues: "No nation, no government, can avoid the issue. Neither can any nation avoid participation, whether it is willing or not, in the responsibility of determining which course of action shall prevail."—(Reuter).

REAL OBJECTIVE OF JAPANESE DRIVE IN EAST HONAN

Hankow, Sept. 11.

Well-informed observers here are of the opinion that the real objective of the Japanese drive in east Honan and west Anhwei is aimed at the capture of Shanchien, half way between Lisan in Anhwei and Suiyang on the Peiping-Hankow Railway, from which the Japanese hope to march south-west via Machen along the highway towards Hankow.

Chinese circles here, however, believe the Japanese must pay heavily before they can break through the strong Chinese defences in the hills between Shanchien and Machen.

The Japanese drive from Hwaiyang to Huchang, on the Peiping-Hankow Railway south of Chengchow, is not regarded as important, since only a small Japanese detachment is taking part.—(Reuter).

AUSTRALIAN COAL MINERS STRIKE

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A.W. HYER—

Ships have personalities! Take a good look at the various ones parked in the harbour and see for yourself.

Bold, gay, rowdy, sassy or with much dignity and haughtiness they plow in and out of our bay. Their whistles and toots have plenty to say, each in their own way.

Now, airplanes and flying ships are the younger generation of this travel business. They are still with growing pains.

Quite a few of these "little dears" have we put up with over the week-end. And how they do "take-on!"

President Cleveland.

APPEARING A BIT sad and forlorn came the President Cleveland from Manila, Thursday, 8.30 a.m. Still limited to twelve passengers her journey was quiet on this account.

Mr. and Mrs. J. De La Pena, Manila residents are on one of those trips of a life time "honeymoon". They will visit at the Hong Kong Hotel several weeks before going home and the day by day of life.

We extend best wishes.

Three cheers and a heigh ho! The Dollar Line has a new lease on life. Clean boats, redecorations, more boats, faster schedules, and new boats will hit the oceans in the very near future. Congratulations!

Air France

WITH A DIPPING zoom over the airport field the "Ville de Bagdad" was off to Ha Noi, Friday, 8.40 a.m.

On a short vacation and joy ride via this proud beauty departed Mr. R. Ohl, Number 1 in the Messageries Maritimes, Hong Kong office, and his young son, Master R. Ohl. Hanol is their destination with visits to a few of the small, beauty spots of Indo-China.

We believe you have a trip there, hope you enjoy it thoroughly!

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fontaine were also holidaying to Ha Noi and the Indo-China country. We hope you forget your woes and troubles and when you return in several weeks all will be happy days and smiles. M. V. Ruys

IT WAS A delightful afternoon to be caught in the rain after saying "adieu" to the gay, Dutch steamer "Ruys" which sailed, Thursday, 5.30 p.m. for Manila and southern ports. And it was raining fast, this time, not inches. Far from wet, and out for a good time in Manila, sailed Mr. E. L. Wood and Mr. C. Sharp.

These two aviators of China National Aviation Corporation will spend two weeks in the south visiting, seeing, going places and doing things. We think they must be just a bunch of "plutocrats," but we are sure you deserve the rest and holiday. Have a good time playing!

"Goodbye, so sorry to see you leave" were the sentiments expressed by the many people gathered at the departure of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lebert and their youngsters as they sailed on the "Ruys." Mr. Lebert, former manager of the Java-China-Japan Line has been succeeded by Mr. A. H. Veitman. We take this opportunity to greet the new Executive and wish him the best of luck. Haruna Maru

IT IS THE early person that always catches something! The very comfortable N.Y.K. steamer jogged herself to the buoy at the early hour of 6 a.m. Sunday. Seven a.m. we Walla Walla ourselves out to call on the customers. And what do you think we caught?

None other than the charming, interesting and very well known Mr. Bruno Lessing.

This widely read author and newspaper columnist has been pleasure jaunting from San Francisco, via Japan and will continue to southern ports. London and home in New York. Naturally, we were interested in his opinion of the Czechoslovakia and German set-up.

"I do not believe the European countries will come to war over this situation, none of them are ready to fight, and a country must be prepared before entering a war," was Mr. Lessing's spoken thought on the subject.

Copy on his trip is flying back to his editors, and soon we will read what he thinks about us all out here.

It was very nice to see you again, and looking so well. We shall await your next call in February with much interest. The best to you! Imperial Airways

THE COMING AND GOING of these airplanes for Imperial Airways, almost have us dizzy. Three of them a week! Friday, 8.00 a.m. the "Della" was off to Bangkok with your letters and no customers. Pinch-hitting was Acting Captain W. A. Cash who flew the "Della" to Bangkok, due to illness of Captain White.

Friday, 5.30 p.m. "Daedalus" arrival with the "All-Up" Air Mail from London. Five minutes later the "Delphinus" piloted by Captain S. Hoare, bringing mail and passengers.

Professor Walter Brown, home from London and a very fine vacation was all set to take up his duties at the Hong Kong University.

Doctor L. Monson another arrival via the "Delphinus" has been shaking the dust of many countries from his feet since June 29.

Hong Kong is almost the centre point in this San Francisco doctor's trip round the world by air. He will depart on the next Pan-American Clipper, September 22. A suitcase practically jammed with colour films is one of his prize possessions of the trip thus far.

Study in Vienna was his original intention but travel and places scored a point and he had to keep on going.

We hope your visit with us will be one of the best in your Globe Flying. Empress of Japan

MAKING A RECORD run from Shanghai and a day ahead of her schedule the Empress of Japan had herself all tied up 1 p.m. Thursday. Congratulations, Captain Douglas.

The passenger list was newly with plenty of your friends, wandering back home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McVay of the National City Bank of New York and their daughter Miss M. McVay were returning vacationers from Japan. They all appeared very healthy and happy beneath the smiles which they gave their friends on arrival.

The charming Mr. and Mrs. David Drummond, Canadian Pacific's able Oriental Manager, and their daughter Miss E. Drummond really sneaked a march on us when they left. They returned to the Colony with a bushel of health and vigour.

Now, there must be something in this travelling via the "Empress Boats" which gives one the "Joy de Vive", smiling eyes and that sparkle these nice people arrived with.

And where did Mr. John Frantice, get to? The Superintendent of the Bank Line who arrived via the Empress of Japan pulled a very fast one. He "skidded", so fast from the ship—Hello, glad you are back! Everyone will have to have mercy on Mr. R. Sanger of Standard Vacuum Co. He returned on the "Empress" all by himself after seeing his family safely out of Japan for the United States. We are glad you are back and there will be plenty of people to take care of the charming and popular gentleman.

Mr. G. M. Wolf of the Asiatic Petroleum Company was trying to find a launch for his baggage, but he did not elude us. He had a perfect three weeks visit in Miyakoshima, Japan and it was all a holidaying—At this point he boomed, Hello!

FINISHING A thoroughly enjoyable engagement and headed for Manila are the Don Cosseppe Choir gentlemen. They all hope to have another hooking in the Colony and trust the audiences in the south will be as appreciative as you all in Hong Kong.

He is gone—we don't believe it—or is it just the echo we still hear Mr. Dick Cochran, a well gent from Manila caught the Empress of Japan and is headed homeward. Hong Kong will never be the same after your month of visiting. If they don't understand you down there, be sure and come back for another call. "Adieu!"

Pan-American Airways

NOONTIME LAST Thursday, there was Captain A. E. Le Porte and his Philippine Clipper at Kai Tak. Mr. Fred Flader and Mr. William Corwell, members of the Curtis Wright Company were journeyors from San Francisco. The trip was all for business purposes but they had a pack of fun and enjoyment out of the ride.

Back to earth after a wonderful ten day stay in Manila were the newly-weds Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Ohl of Pan-American Airways Hong Kong office. And what was this about Mrs. Ohl's "flying sailor ability"?—Maybe that would be telling!

The next clipper—China Clipper—arrival, September 21st.

GERMAN PRESS ON GREAT BRITAIN'S
MOBILISATION ORDERSUrges Protest Against Use
Of Poison Gas

London, Sept. 11.
On the eve of the League of Nations Assembly, Lord Listowel, as chairman on behalf of the China Campaign Committee, wrote to Lord Halifax, Foreign Secretary, requesting the British Government to make the strongest protest at Geneva against the use of poison gas by the Japanese in China.

The letter quotes evidence of the recent use of gas by the Japanese which the Committee submits is "substantial and conclusive." The evidence, says Lord Listowel, "does not come exclusively from Chinese sources, but is supported by eye-witness accounts from foreign reporters and doctors attending the troops."

Lord Listowel says that the large section of British public opinion represented by the China Campaign Committee urges the Government to give public support at the Assembly to the legitimate demands of the Chinese Government in this matter.—(Reuter).

Will Take Nine Days To Complete Measures

Berlin, September 11.
Britain's mobilisation, according to a report in the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, goes far beyond what was reported on Friday night from the British Admiralty and concerns not only the Navy but also the Army.

"On the basis of thoroughly reliable information we are able to add," writes the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, "that the mobilisation measures taken are not confined to those comparatively harmless steps officially admitted on Friday night."

Very probably the mobilisation of mine sweepers was made known because it could not possibly be interpreted by the world as a measure of attack.

Britain's military preparations, however, are not restricted thereto and not even to her fleet but it also concerns all sections of the national defence forces including the army. The measures which have been decided upon will require about nine days to complete.—(Transocean).

NEW PROHIBITED
AIR ZONES IN GERMANY

Berlin, Sept. 11.
Four new prohibited air zones in western Germany have been established by a decree of the Reich Air Ministry comprising areas around Aachen and Treves also Palatinate and Baden.

The decree which will come into force on September 20 provides that no aeroplane may henceforth fly over any of the above mentioned areas without authorisation.

Machines which should infringe this regulation will be warned by signals and is they disregard the latter they will be liable to be shot down.—(Transocean).

SITUATION NOT ALTERED BY BENES' SPEECH

Berlin, Sept. 11.
The speech made by Dr. Edouard Benes, President of the Czechoslovak Republic, is described in political circles here as primarily intended for home consumption and having little bearing on the issue under consideration.

A German spokesman declared, "The speech does not alter the situation. Dr. Benes obviously desired to give his people an account of the negotiations under way, to exercise a calming influence on them and prepare them for what may develop."—(Reuter).

Shanghai, Sept. 11.
The Chinese withdrawn from Kushi, in southeastern Honan, are maintaining a strong line at Chun-ho, to the west of the city. Violent fighting is proceeding to the east of Chun-ho.

A thousand Japanese troops are reported to have appeared at Wulung, northwest of Kushi. Chinese reinforcements are rushing up to engage them.—(Central News).

FRENCH PLANE CARRIER
LEAVES KWANGCHOWANBut Destroyers Remain To Strengthen Defence

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Canton, September 10.
After a brief stay in Kwangchow, the French aircraft carrier Clark is reported to have left for Haiphong en route to France. The presence of the French aircraft carrier was for the purpose of supervising the construction of an aerodrome in the leased territory.

Several French destroyers also anchored off Kwangchow to strengthen the defence of the territory and to maintain communication between that port and Indo-China, it was reported.

The same report stated that the French have erected a meteorological and a wireless station at Paracel Islands, which will keep mariners in those waters informed of weather conditions. The Chinese meteorological station at Pratas was put out of action after the occupation of the island by the Japanese a year ago.

There are about 200 Annamite policemen on the Paracel Islands with three destroyers standing by. Japanese fishermen are permitted to fish in the adjacent waters, but

Strong Chinese Guerillas
Active Around Nanking

Tanki, Anhwei, Sept. 11.
Strong Chinese guerilla bands are reported to be active at Kintan, Kuyung, Tanyang and Shinkiang, respectively 85, 49, 95 and 69 kilometres from Nanking.

The guerilla bands are well-trained and disciplined, and do not molest the Chinese people. They are warmly welcomed by the Chinese wherever they go. Many able-bodied peasants have actually joined them.

It is stated that the Japanese are guarding only the highways linking these towns. The guerillas are controlling all the villages and rural towns beyond the highways.

To strengthen the defence of Nanking the Japanese have summoned the irregulars under the command of Liu Kwei-tang from Peiping. They are charged with the responsibility of fighting the guerillas around Nanking.—(Central News).

COUNTER-ATTACK ON KWANGTSE

Hankow, Sept. 11.
With the aid of reinforcements the Japanese on the north bank of the Yangtze River are exerting strenuous efforts for regaining Kwangtsi, gateway to the Wuhan area, which was recaptured by the Chinese in a vigorous attack on September 9, according to field dispatches.

Tons of high explosive have been dumped indiscriminately on the already war-torn city by Japanese bombers coming in relays since September 9. Yesterday morning Japanese infantry made several fierce assaults on the city, allegedly using poison gas on two occasions.

Fighting with grim determination, the Chinese drove the invaders back in each assault. But a considerable number of Chinese troops are said to have been victimized by the enemy's poison gas.

Besides more than 40 field pieces, 500 Japanese horses and other heavy arms are reported to have been seized by the Chinese upon their recapture of Kwangtsi.—(Central News).

JAPANESE REPULSED

Nanchang, Sept. 11.
Bloody fighting raged at Hsikuiling, west of Tungking on the west shore of Poyang Lake, all day long yesterday. Repeated Japanese assaults were repulsed by the Chinese. Casualties on both sides were heavy.

The Japanese, attacked by two routes. One column of troops, which landed at Niuwetun, south of Singze, attacked the Chinese rear by a detour whilst another column launched frontal assaults.

The fierce battle started at 2 a.m. lasted until daybreak when the Japanese were given back with heavy losses.

Bringing their heavy artillery and bombing planes into action, the Japanese made a new attack around 10 a.m. Bombs and shells

Large-Scale
Guerilla
Warfare

Hankow, Sept. 11.
Using Wutsin on the Shanghai-Nanking Railway, northwest of Taiho, as a base of operations, Chinese mobile units in the triangle area bordering Kiangsu, Chekiang and Anhwei are conducting large-scale guerilla warfare in the Japanese rear chiefly along the Shanghai-Nanking Railway, the Grand Canal, the Nanking-Wuhan Railway and also various highways in the area.

According to Chinese reports, these mobile units include the new Fourth Army, the south Yangtze vanguards, the east Anhwei vanguards, the Loyal Salvation army and also regular troops and numerous volunteer self defence corps.—(Reuter).

MADAME CHAO
DUE IN CANTON

Canton, Sept. 11.
A warm welcome will be given to Madame Chao, organizer of guerilla warfare in north China, when she arrives here this week from Hong Kong.

In a recent trip to Hankow, Madam organized seven guerilla units of 4,000 men, who will fight the enemy should they approach Wuhan.

Madame Chao is planning to visit Malaya, Philippines, Java, etc. to raise funds for her guerilla forces.

Representatives of women bodies welcome this Joan of Arc to Canton.—(International).

including some poison gas missiles, were hurled at the Chinese positions in large numbers.

Three Chinese companies were affected by the poison gas shells and died at their post. But the other Chinese troops stubbornly resisted the advance of Japanese infantry and firmly held their ground.

There was comparative quiet on the Nanchang-Kiukiang Railway as well as west of the railway yesterday.—(Central News).

PIERCE GUN DUEL
A fierce gun duel took place between four Japanese warships and Chinese batteries at Matow on the south bank of the Yangtze River, 25 kilometres west of Kankow on Saturday morning.

Later, the enemy vessels steamed downstream, says Central News.

Four Japanese seaplanes which bombed the villages between Wusueh and Lungping were repulsed by heavy Chinese anti-aircraft gun fire.

Shanghai, Sept. 11.
Evidence that guerillas in Hunghao are still most active, was provided this morning. Mr. Tony Keswick, Head of Messrs. Jardine's, while proceeding for a game of golf came across a neatly severed head of a Chinese which subsequent investigation proved to belong to a policeman of the Japanese-fostered Tatsoi Government.

The head was found right in the middle of the bridge near the Hunghao Golf Club from where the Japanese military post was recently withdrawn.

The guerillas are reported to have warned the villagers in Hunghao and the countryside that the same fate awaits all in Japanese pay.—(Reuter).

LEE WAI-TONG SCORES TWICE FOR SOUTH CHINA IN CHARITY MATCH

Chinese Defeat The Rest By Odd Goal After Lead Of 3-0 At Interval

DUNCAN IS BRILLIANT IN GOAL FOR LOSERS

A huge crowd was present at Caroline Hill yesterday to see South China beat the Rest by the odd goal in seven in a charity football match. Tam Kwan-kon played in goal for the Chinese instead of Pau Kung, and Lam Tak-po's place was taken by Lee Kwok-wai.

From the commencement of the game, South China took the offensive and Lee Wai-tong who made his first reappearance in local football yesterday, was a constant source of worry to the Rest defence. About seven minutes after the kick-off, Lee Wai-tong scored from outside the penalty area, with a long shot, the ball deflecting off Costa's foot into the goal.

South China maintained pressure and Duncan, in goal, was repeatedly tested with several difficult shots which he cleared admirably. On one occasion, Lau Tau-man, the South China left-winger and newcomer to local football from Shanghai, had the ball in his possession, he dribbled up to the goal mouth and sent a fast drive which Duncan stopped. Lee Wai-tong ran up and took possession but miskicked and sent the ball over the bar.

A little later, Lau Shiu-wing attempted a long shot but it went wide. Immediately after the Rest forwards took the ball up to their opponent's goal, and Leonard who was playing instead of Pearson, shot, but Tam again effected a brilliant save.

South China's second goal came when Lau Tau-man dribbled up to the goal and tapped the ball into the net. Immediately after Lee Wai-tong tested Duncan.

Two minutes before the interval, Lau Tau-man scored the third goal for his side with a beautiful drive.

Half-time, South China 3, Rest 0.

Shortly after the resumption, Lee Wai-tong scored the fourth goal for the Chinese. With four goals against them, the Rest looked as if they were going to lose still heavier, but their forwards seemed to be playing better football. The first goal for the Rest was scored by Hau Ching-to.

Following a clearance, Suen Kam-shun passed the ball to Hau Ching-to who netted the second goal for the Rest.

South China forwards made repeated attempts to increase their lead, but they were successfully repulsed by Watson and Costa in the Rest defence. Towards the end of the game, Leonard scored from just outside the penalty area.

Proctor, Suen Kam-shun and Grogan played very well for the Rest while Duncan was splendid in goal. Hau Ching-to played exceptionally well for his side and in the second half, he was given a few more opportunities when his forwards were in possession of the ball, he would no doubt have made good use of them. His shooting was very accurate.

For South China, Lau Tau-man and Lee Wai-tong played well. Lee missed several easy shots when he was in possession.

THE TEAMS
The following were the teams:—
South China:—Tam Kwan-kon, Mak Siu-hon and Lee Tin-sung, Leung Wing-chiu, Lau Hing-choi, and Lee Kwok-wai, Tso Kwai-shing, Fung King-cheong, Lee Wai-tong, Lau Shiu-wing and Lau Tau-man.

The Rest:—Duncan (Royal Scots), Watson (Middlesex) and V. Costa (St. Joseph's), Proctor (Royal Scots), K. Forrow (Club) and J. Parker (Police); Grogan (Middlesex), Suen Kam-shun (Eastern), D. Leonard (St. Joseph's), Saw (Middlesex) and Hau Ching-to (Eastern).

CHINESE CLUBS FIND NEW SOCCER STARS

SOUTH CHINA HAS NEW TALENT

Though there were a number of good individual performances, the football matches played on Saturday produced little that was outstanding as a whole.

Chinese teams had many newcomers on view and these acquitted themselves well. Indications are that this season South China Athletic Association at least will have even more talent than ever to call upon.

Leung Pak-wai and Chan Wei-sung both played fine games for South China "B" last year's first division champions, against the Middlesex Regiment, runners-up, and it is certain, if they keep up this form, that they will retain their places.

This match, as such, however, was rather disappointing. Lau Chung-sang, who made a good impression last week, was another enterprising forward, but the rest of the attack left something to be desired, and perhaps due to the earliness of the season and the consequent lack of practice, did not combine very well.

For the military side, Saw Grogan and Pearson were the pick of the attack, and Watson and Freshwater did good work in the back line, but here, also, polish and understanding were lacking.

SATURDAY'S RESULTS

FIRST DIVISION
S. China "B"	1 Middlesex 0
Club	0 Eastern 7
Kowloon F.C.	4 Kwong Wah 3
SECOND DIVISION
South China 1	Middlesex 1
Club	3 Eastern 1
Kowloon	4 Kwong Wah 1

The first half, which alternated between bright patches and desultory exchanges, was goalless. Early in the second, Sheehan handled in the area, and Lee Shek-yau scored from the resultant penalty.

EASTERN'S FINE WIN
Eastern gave the Hong Kong Football Club a terrific beating in the senior division, but the junior game between them resulted the other way round.

Suen Kam-shun, Au Shi-ngok and Hau Ching-to each scored two goals and Lee Tak-kee added a seventh without any reply from the Club. In the second division match, Shaw (2) and Wilson scored for the Club, and Ng Ching-cheung for Eastern.

DRAWN GAME
In a game that was played under very poor conditions, South China juniors and Middlesex juniors, shared two goals. The Chinese turned out an almost entirely new team, and under these circumstances, they may be said to have done very well. The goal-scorers were Thomas and Ting Yuen-fat.

COPPER COIN VALUE RISE

The value of the copper coin in Halkow has recently experienced a sudden rise. While in the past one Chinese dollar could be changed into 300 copper coins, at present only 260 may be obtained. According to the merchants, the rise is to be attributed to the fact that recently 200 copper coins could be changed into one Hong Kong dollar, prompting the promoters to smuggle a vast number of the coins to Hong Kong. NEW FAR EAST TROPHY MATCH WILL BE INAUGURATED

The Hong Kong Rifle Association's fourth season will open on Wednesday with a Spoon and Practice Shoot on the Kowloon Ranges very kindly lent again by the Military Authorities.

Membership now consists of twelve affiliated clubs represented by 1,258 full members of whom there are 765 resident in the Colony. The first part of the season will be devoted to choosing S.R. (a) and (b) teams for both the Inter-Colonial match and the Far East Trophy match.

The latter matter was arranged by Major D. H. Steers before he left the Colony and will be inaugurated for the first time this year. The teams competing in this trophy are the Ceylon Rifle Association, P. M. S. Volunteer Force Rifle Association, and Singapore Rifle Association. It is hoped to fire off both these matches in the middle of December.

The second half of the season will be given over to practising for the Prize Meeting which takes place from April 14-17, 1939, and members will be given more opportunities this year for practising at the long Ranges during this period.

H.K. BASEBALL SEASON ENDS

Americans Beat Local Nine

(By "Keystone Sack")

Local baseball wound up yesterday in about the best game of the season when the Americans humbled a Hong Kong nine by 5-0; the game coming to an untimely end in the sixth frame when it was called on account of rain.

Mike Mulligan, on the mound for the Americans, bettered Ernie Hearther's record of 11 strikeouts, when he fanned twelve men, and only walked one. In five and a half innings, catcher Waggoner was credited with eleven put-outs, showing clearly that the mighty battery of the Americans' shouldered the brunt of this interesting tussle.

It is to be regretted that these newcomers to Hong Kong won't be seen in any more games this season, but they'll be here next year when they'll probably don the colours of the Hong Kong Baseball Club, the cellar champs of this season.

Hong Kong provided little competition in this clash, so many of the boys did not wait any more of it after five and a half months of baseball.

There was disappointment in that the much-awaited All-Hong Kong team, that mythical aggregation that was selected to play this past week-end, did not show up in full force. The local battery of Spotty Peretz and Wally Ching could do little against the stronger opposition, and had very little backing from their team-mates. Bebe Chinn bobbling an easy fly at leftfield, Tommy Mar fumbling a rolling grounder at right, and first baseman Barros prolonging the life of two batters by committing two errors.

JAPANESE STOREHOUSES SET ON FIRE

Pinglu, Shansi, Sept. 11.
Japanese storehouses of ammunition and provisions at the station at Chiehshu on the Tatung-Puchow Railway, 144 kilometres south of Tolyuan, were set on fire by Chinese guerrillas on the night of Sept. 5.

Japanese troops rushing to the scene were intercepted by the guerrillas.

The fire burned until the next day. Explosions of bombs in the ammunition depot were heard throughout the night.—(Central News).

SHANGHAI POST OFFICE FIRE

Hankow, Sept. 11.
A fire broke out in the parcel room in the basement of the Post Office in North Szechwan Road, Shanghai, at 11 o'clock Friday night, according to a Shanghai message. It was brought under control at 12.30 after midnight.

During the fire a Japanese landing party threw a cordon around the place.

The cause of the fire is not known.—(Central News)

FIGHTING ON SHANSI-CHAHAR BORDER

Sian, Sept. 11.
Fighting has been raging at Kwangling and Lingchin on the Shansi-Chahar border for the last ten days.

The Chinese force, numbering 10,000 strong, is said to have inflicted considerable casualties upon the Japanese by their clever manoeuvrings.

Japanese reinforcements are being rushed to the scene of fighting from Tatung. Important towns in north Shansi.—(Central News).
